PRIVATE CLIENTS

People work hard for the nice things in life, and they're worth protecting.

From homes (including period, listed, country estates, farms and modern buildings) to cars, boats, art, jewellery and even wine collections. We can give you peace of mind that your possessions are protected – and often on a single policy.

We recognise that all people are different and that's why we tailor bespoke packages to suit individuals' needs. We can also offer specific advice on how to guard against problems with our risk management work including valuations, property marking, security and fire prevention.

"If I have any enquiries relating to insurance, Dale is the first person I turn to. He is a fountain of knowledge, very professional and great company. I would always be happy to recommend him to friends and clients alike".

Steve Cox, Director, C W Commercial Finance Ltd

GOING ONE STEP FURTHER

There are also a range of different benefits:

- We can also visit your home to assess the level of your contents
- Better risk management – talk to us about tips to bring your premium down
- A portfolio policy – insure all your possessions on a single policy saving you time and money
- Separate art and antiques – they cost less to insure
- Tailoring your policy – we look at the detail to help you save money

If money is a big factor in how and what you insure, talk to us about 'no frills' insurance. But it's worth thinking about our specialist policies to protect your assets.
